1. Read this high school student's writing below and follow the directions. 【30 points】

My Favorite Season

Summer is my favorite season. The temperature is good for me. I like the summer clothing and the outdoor activities. I am never bored during a summer. Sometimes I don't like the hot weather because it make me uncomfortable. I can go outside anytime without puting on much clothing. A light shirt and shorts with sandals for my feet are always enough, while jeans and a light jacket is usually enough for cool evenings. On special events I can dress me up without making everything wrinkled by wearing a heavy coat. Actually, I have bought a heavy coat on sale from the department store yesterday. What I like most about this season are participating at outdoor activities. I really like swimming when the air is warm and the sun is shining. I also like a winter sports. Basketball is fun too. Our friends like to go to the court in the afternoon for an exciting game. Both basketball and the bike riding to the court are pleasant ways to start a summer morning. They made me excited. These are my reasons of liking summer. It is really my favorite season.

Complete the following three tasks. First, write one paragraph providing summative feedback to indicate the strong and weak points with regard to the content and organization of this student's writing. When stating the strong and weak points of the content and organization, provide at least one concrete example of both strong and weak points. Next, you are to prepare a simple table using correction symbols (e.g., "S" for incorrect spelling) to give feedback on this writing with regard to grammar and mechanics. There are a total of twelve errors in the student's writing that are categorized into six different error types. Each different error type is represented by each of the six underlined words in the student's writing. Find all the errors (including the six underlined ones) and draw a table on your answer sheet which lists errors found and correction symbols and their meanings. Your table on the answer sheet should look like the following. The first row has been completed for you.

error(s) found*	correction symbol and its meaning
puting on	"S" for incorrect spelling

* When listing the error on your table, be sure to include the context in which the error occurs (with one word which immediately follows the error).

Finally, write another paragraph which states two advantages and two disadvantages of using correction symbols when giving feedback.

2. Read the passage below and follow the directions. 【20 points】

I've finally figured out the difference between neat people and sloppy people. The distinction is, as always, moral. Neat people are lazier and meaner than sloppy people.

Sloppy people, you see, are not really sloppy. Their sloppiness is merely the unfortunate consequence of their extreme moral rectitude. Sloppy people carry in their mind's eye a heavenly vision, a precise plan, that is so stupendous, so perfect, it can't be achieved in this world or the next.

Sloppy people live in Never-Never land. Someday is their métier. Someday they are planning to alphabetize all their books and set up home catalogues. Someday they will go through their wardrobes and mark certain items for tentative mending and certain items for passing on to relatives of similar shape and size. Someday sloppy people will make family scrapbooks into which they will put newspaper clippings, postcards, locks of hair, and the dried corsage from their senior prom. Someday they will file everything on the surface of their desks, including the cash receipts from coffee purchases at the snack shop. Someday they will sit down and read all of the back issues of The New Yorker.

Sloppy people can't bear to part with anything. They give loving attention to every detail. When sloppy people say they're going to tackle the surface of the desk, they really mean it. Not a paper will go unturned; not a rubber band will go unboxed. Four hours or two weeks into the excavation, the desk looks exactly the same, primarily because the sloppy person is meticulously creating new piles of paper with new headings and scrupulously stopping to read all the old book catalogs before he throws them away. A neat person would just bulldoze the desk.

Neat people are bums and clods at heart. They have cavalier attitudes toward possessions, including family heirlooms. Everything is just another dust-catcher to them. If anything collects dust, it's got to go and that's that. Neat people will toy with the idea of throwing the children out of the house just to cut down on the clutter.

Neat people don't care about process. They like results. What they want to do is get the whole thing over with so they can sit down and watch the rasslin' on TV. Neat people operate on two unvarying principles: Never handle any item twice, and throw everything away.

The only thing messy in a neat person's house is the trash can. The minute something comes to a neat person's hand, he will look at it, try to decide if it has immediate use and, finding none, throw it in the trash.

* rasslin' : wrestling

Summarize the above passage in a well-formed paragraph. Your summary must contain the main idea and all major supporting ideas expressed by the author and must not contain any of your own ideas. Do not copy more than eight consecutive words from the passage.
